BEAUTY IN IMPERFECTION

SENN

With deep roots in Japanese design philosophy and a focus on the inspiring properties of nature, this autumn collection captures the essence of the modern era. Minimalistic elements, combined with captivating forms and timeless aesthetics, not only enhance visual appeal but also elevate the decor into functional masterpieces.

As summer fades and nature seeks solace within, captivating contrasts and harmonious interplays between form and function emerge in thoughtful designs that encourage us to reclaim time for what we value most by cultivating spaces devoted to what brings us joy.

Delving deeper than decor, it's about sharing values and shaping the home based on our convictions, acknowledging how the home has in turn shaped us.

ISHI COFFEE TABLE

Ishi captures the enchanting essence of natural beauty and Japanese design philosophy, embodying the narrative of delightful and distinct pebbles, shaped by the lapping of waves and glaciers, discovered along riversides and shores.

The sculptural legs add a visual interest, transforming the table into a functional 'work of art'. Combined with the tabletop's round shape, the design achieves a beautiful harmonious expression.
